JULY NEWSLETTER 2011

Thank you for all the wonderful gifts we received. We all really appreciate it. I hope everyone is enjoying their summer vacation so far, it is so nice to have some sun.

This newsletter is to update you all about a few events we are planning for next year.

SUMMER DANCE CLASSIC 2011 Disney Dance the Magic:

The dates are tentatively July 12th-July 15th for the workshop, parade, performance. We would be planning a 7 day trip. This is a performance opportunity for all students from 8 and up involved in the competition level program. They can participate in 2 days of workshops. They will learn choreography before they leave so they can participate in a parade down Main Street with approximately 600-700 other dancers from all other dance studios. We also have the opportunity to do a performance on the Sunday. It is done on an audition base; we send in as many different pieces and they will decide which dances we will do. We are hoping for 3 dances to be chosen. I have registered the studio and have spoken to one of the organizers. There is a website that you can go on to see more in-depth information www.dancethemagic.com.
